YANKEE NEWS.

PETERSBURG, Va., May 28.—The Baltimore American of the 26th inst., evening edition, publishes dispatches from Vicksburg reported as official, dated Friday night, May 22d, 9 o'clock, P. M., which says:

"An ordnance officer writes—our loss is not very heavy for the position we have gained.

The rebels make firm resistance. I think we shall have the place to-morrow. We completely circle the town and to-night our men have colors planted on the enemy's works and are lying on the extreme slope.

Gun and mortar boats are in front of Vicksburg, and we have captured thus far 6,000 prisoners with 74 pieces of artillery.

Grant is in good spirits.

If we take Vicksburg we shall secure 1,5000 prisoners with Pemberton & Co.

(Signed,) S. C. LYFORD.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 25—The rebel guerillas captured the town of Richmond on Tuesday with the Union forces which occupied it. They also plundered Plattsburg and took $11,000 belonging to the State.

MURFREESBORO', May 25.—Large bodies of rebel cavalry are going Southward.

Breckenridges' Corps has fallen back from its advanced position.

There is considerable talk of danger in the Cabinet.

Butler [the Beast,] is mentioned as Stanton's successor.

LATER FROM THE U. STATES.

RICHMOND, May 28.—A copy of the N. Y. Herald of the 26th inst., has been received. Com. Porter's official dispatch to the Secretary of the Navy is published. It gives the particulars of the capture of Haines Bluff on the 18th inst., with the guns, tools, camp equipage and all kinds of ammunition, enough to last a long siege, but as the gun carriages may again fall into the hands of the enemy, they were burned. The magazine was blown up and the works, generally, destroyed.

On the 19th instant, six mortars were placed in position, with orders to fire on Vicksburg night and day, rapidly as they could.

Intelligence of the probable fall of Vicksburg lead to a decline in gold and exchange, which had reacted upon produce, and stocks. The gold market closed at 142½ths.

Advices from Mexico state that the French army at Puebla has met with disaster after nine ineffectual efforts at an assault. The French loss is put down at 8000, and the army retreating, being pursued by the Mexicans.

VALLANDIGHAM IN TENNESSEE.

FOSTERVILLE, Tenn., May 25.—Vallandigham reached our lines under a flag of truce this morning, from Murfreesboro. Gen. Martin refused to recognize the flag. The enemy then left him between the lines at his own request. Gen. Martin received him as a citizen of the United States, banished from his home and country, because he had dared to resist a tyranical government.

PROSPECTUS
OF THE STATE JOURNAL.

HAVING become the proprietor of the Democratic Press. I have merged that paper into the STATE JOURNAL, which will be published Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

The STATE JOURNAL will advocate Democratic principles in the broadest sense, and will support and defend Democratic measures and their advocates as they are presented, and as occasion may require. In other essentials it will be my aim to make the paper, what its name denotes, a State Journal—eschewing all sectional considerations and working for the entire State and her common interests.

As soon as arrangements can be made, the whole paper shall be re-modeled and printed with new type, on good paper, and in a superior manner.

The Editorial department will be properly attended to in its various branches, and will speak for itself. Neither labor nor expense will be spared in the management of the paper.

THE CHARLESTON MERCURY

A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL, AND LITERARY NEWSPAPER.

PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY

THE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading ports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive.—Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

Money may always be forwarded at our risk in registered letters.

POSTMASTERS are authorised to act as our Agents in obtaining subscribers and forwarding the money; and by sending us Five DAILY subscribers, with $50 enclosed—or Five TRI-WEEKLY subscribers, with $25 enclosed, will be entitled to ad extra copy; or if preferred, they may retain Twenty per cent. of the pre-payments, for their trouble and in lieu of the extra paper.

Yankee News.

The news published under our telegraphic head, from Northern sources, is not as late as that received from Vicksburg through a Southern channel, by five days We give the Yankee news for what it is worth, with the simple remark that its reports from Vicksburg are false in every particular.

The report as regards the movement and action of our guerillas may be correct, as the acknowledgement can serve no good purpose for the Yankees, yet Yankee reports should be taken not until well watered.

Hon. C. L. Vallandigham.

The annexed opinion in reference to this unfortunate man who has been exiled from Ohio, so well expresses our sentiment that we adopt the language as our own. It is from the Augusta Constitutionalist.

"The Confederate States cannot afford to degrade itself to become a penal colony for Lincoln, even when the convict is a man so distinguished, and, under other circumstances, so worthy of respect as Mr. Vallandigham. His late speeches, while they are unmistakably and manly in denunciation of Lincoln, evince no real friendship for us, except in the attitude of reconstructionists. Therefore we cannot take him by the hand, or recognize him as a martyr to our cause. We doubt not that Gen. Bragg has instructions by which he will be enabled to dispose of this distinguished visitor in a manner in keeping with the dignity of the country, and in a proper spirit of magnanimity to the victim of Lincoln despotism. If Mr. Vallandigham should pass through our boundaries, we trust there will be no public demonstrations in his behalf, or other testimonials, save the courtesy due to a man in his novel position."

Grant's Army.

From the following which appeared in the Memphis Bulletin of the 11th inst., it appears that the enemy was apprehensive that reinforcements will be sent by us to Vicksburg. That paper says:

It is stated as a fact that large forces were on their way from Mobile and Charleston to prevent the capture of Vicksburg, and to annihilate General Grant's army. To do this, a portion of the rebel army at Vicksburg would move out on the Lexington and Vicksburg dirt road, to a point where it could get to the Jackson and Memphis Railroad, in the rear, while the forces from Mobile and Charleston made the attack in front.

The above statement we give just as we have received it, and, if true, it may try the generalship of General Grant to the the utmost. As regards the capture of Clinton, and the rebels falling back to Jackson, we have no doubt.

AN ENGAGEMENT ON ST. FRANCIS RIVER.—A Helena, Arkansas, dispatch, dated May 1st., says:

A detachment of the Third Iowa Cavalry left for a scout this morning in the St. Francis river country. It proceeded towards LaGrange, fifteen miles Northwest. Two miles this side, the advance was fired upon from a thicket. The detachment attempted to form a line to make a charge The enemy suddenly arose from the underbrush on each side and the rear. The commanding officer of the detachment, seeing he was almost entirely surrounded by greatly superior numbers, ordered a retreat. A gallant dash was made through the enemy's lines, in face of a galling fire of musketry, the rebel forces, consisting of cavalry and infantry, pursuing five miles. A number of our men were left dead on the field. Probably thirty were taken prisoners. Eleven wounded were brought off, and have just arrived in town. It is impossible to estimate the extent of our loss or that of the rebels. The enemy numbered 800 to 1000. They are supposed to be the advance of a large force.

As soon as information reached headquarters, reinforcements were sent out, and precaution taken to guard the garrison against surprise. Although there is no ground for apprehension relative to the ability of the forces now here to repel any attack that may be attempted, yet the notes of preparation and unusual vigilance seen on every side, indicates that the Commanding General does not consider it impossible that formidable demonstrations are contemplated by the rebels, and is determined to be prepared.

A DESERTER SHOT.—A squad of militia, under Capt. Yeargin, stationed at the Falls of Neuse river, attempted to arrest a deserter named Fort, in that neighborhood yesterday, and the deserter resisting and firing on Capt. Yeargin, was shot down by some of the squad and killed. This man Fort has been skulking in that neighborhood for a long time and was only found now by the vigilance of the militia, who have been charged with the duty of arresting deserters. How much better would it have been for this poor creature to have fallen in battle. Let his fate serve as a warning to others to come in, give themselves up and accept the pardon which has been so generously offered them.—Raleigh Progress.

The editor of the Tuscaloosa Observer says he must have 25 or 30 pounds of beeswax, or he will be compelled to suspend his paper.

ROBERT GIBBON, Surg. in Charge,
4th Brigade, Light Division,

OUR LOSSES.—Although Hooker places the losses of the Union army at ten thousand men, it is to be feared that it is much larger. A detailed statement, in part only, gives the following:

Sickles' Corps—Lost 4,874 in killed, wounded and prisoners.

Howard's Corps (the 11th)—Lost officers killed 27; men 102; wounded officers 68; men 985; missing officers 28; men 2,061. Total, 3,120.

Sedgwick's Corps—Loss full 5,970.

The Flying Division—Numbered 2,200 before the battle. Only 900 answered to roll call after the battle.

Those make a total of 15,364. But they do not include the Fifth Corps, in which the losses were very heavy, or other divisions that were engaged in the fight. The correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, Republican, puts down the loss as high as thirty thousand.—N. Y. Argus.
